Period Dignity

As we near the October holidays we would remind young people, parents and carers that free period products are available for collection from our Inclusion Room. Elaine, Aimi, Stacy and Bronwyn are happy to support all requests.

Packs of period products will be available in the main foyer for collection throughout the October holidays with the school open until 4pm (Mon-Fri both weeks).

Alternatively young people can download the PickUpMyPeriod app available via both iOS and Android to identify where free period products area available in their community.
